

CONGRATULATIONS

James Beale

On Friday the 21st of June, James received the council's award for the best degree in the Faculty of Engineering, the Built Environment and Information Technology (ebait) from the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Sibongile Muthwa. The award was for his BSc Construction Studies degree, of which, was awarded Cum Laude in 2018, obtaining an average mark of 92.1% for his 3rd year major modules, Construction Management 3, Building Science (Structures; Environment & Services; Materials & Methods); Production Analysis, and Building Economics and an overall weighted average of 84.3% over 3 years of studies.

